

The RI Turner Awards for Young Artists

The RI Turner Awards for Young Artists have been generously donated by the Royal Institute of Painters in Watercolour (RI) and the Turner bequest.

The total prize money for these awards is £2000:

First Prize: £1000

2 x Runner-up Prizes: £500 each

The three winning artists will also be required to show their work in the Sunday Times Watercolour exhibition at the Mall Galleries in London from 1st – 7th November 2010 and on tour regionally. The selected artists must deliver the work to the Mall Galleries on or before the 29th October 2010.

Rules and Guidelines

- Who can enter: All UK artists aged between 16 and 20 years. Date of birth must be between 1/7/1990 and 1/7/1994.
- How many images: Artists can enter up to four images.
- What is the size limit for the files: Images must not be larger than 500kb jpeg files
- What is the entry fee and deadline for these Awards: Entry fee is £10 per image submitted and the deadline is 3rd July 2010 for entries.
- Who will judge the entries: Representatives from the RI and from Turner
- When will artists hear if they have won: All entries will be emailed by 12th July 2010
- Can young artists also enter the Sunday Times Watercolour Competition: Yes, entering the RI Turner Awards for Young Artists does not exclude young artists from entering. For entry forms and rules please visit www.parkerharris.co.uk
- Can artists only enter the RI Turner Awards for Young Artists online: Yes, entry for these awards is only permissible online.

For further information please contact Parker Harris tel: 01372 462190 or email watercolour@parkerharris.co.uk